

The First Half of Romans

ROMANS 1-8

STUDY

"No man truly can read [Romans] too often or study it too well; for the more it is studied the easier it is, the more it is chewed the more pleasant it is, and the more groundly it is searched, the more precious things are found in it, so great treasure of spiritual things lie hidden therein."<sup>1</sup>

Instructions for Daily Study

1. Read the verses carefully and pay attention to the progression of Paul's argument.
2. Study the verses by stating the facts, asking and answering questions, forming principles and applications, and responding in prayer.
3. At the end of each chapter, summarize by listing out the main points of Paul's arguments and some practical applications for your life.
